4. REGS4SHIPS Database

This is a database of maritime regulations. It is a single resource of regulations from multiple maritime organisations and is designed for ships, offices and for educational purposes. It is a one (1) point of reference for maritime regulations and is organized by keyword/subject index. The database is updated as soon as amendments are made to the regulations. Regs4ships automates an otherwise manual process of organizing regulations from varied agencies. Documentations are reviewed by mariners and maritime experts.

The database consists of the following:

- IMO Conventions
- IMO Resolutions
- IMO Circulars
- IMO Codes
- Flag State Regulations
- International Labour Organization Regulations
- EU Legislations
- World Health Organization Regulations
- US Coast Guard for Foreign Vessels (optional extra)
